Violent Dreams

Die Happy

Sun is getting down Shadows get bigger Mean noises around The air tastes bitter

Pictures start to move They make bad faces Bats are flying 'round In fast races

The moon is greeting me But I can't see it The bad spell is here And I sure can feel it

Creatures 'round my bed I can hear them mumble Their eyes shine red And they stumble

I don't wanna die

SCARE ME EVERYNIGHT AGAINST YOU I WILL FIGHT 'TILL THE SUN WILL RISE I'M LIVING THIS HELL VIOLENT DREAMS

AND WHEN IT'S LIGHT THE DEAMONS TAKING FLIGHT OUT OF MIND AND SIGHT I'M RID OF THIS SPELL VIOLENT DREAMS

Sun is rising up Shadows get thinner After last night I am the winner

This night isn't better I don't wanna stay here Why should it matter My visions are queer

Cold sweat on my skin My heart is beating Might have been a sin 'Cause my hands are bleeding

It's been already years Since it first happened All I have are tears And no weapon

Go away bad ghost Disappear You don't make me feel any fear I do not give a damn 'bout you What did I do to you?
