

Bloodsuckers

Die Krupps

you suck out the oil for the salt of the earth you ravage the soil

strip mining mountains you gauge out the face
you suffocate life
in an asphalt membrane

don't eat your own heart
'cause you can never win

you steel from the earth you'll kill for the riches and decide what it's worth

got your values out of whack you've been selling your soul for a greenback stack
