

Disconnect

Digital Summer

There must be a way
To cut the cord
I'm not ungrateful
I just need more
Than the simple life
I was given
Searching for something
To believe in

Disconnect me
From this harmful dream
This world is not designed for me
Disconnect me!
Disconnect me!

And now is the time
To disengage
To break away
And escape from the cage
That I live in the cell
That contains me
It's holding me hostage and
You can't save me

Disconnect me
From this harmful dream
This world
Is not designed for me
I reject this reality
I reject this reality
I reject this reality

It's not what I wanted
I'd give it all away
I'm willing to give up
Everything that's true
I've become
Numb to it all
Cast to the world
Just to wait for the fall

Disconnect me!
Disconnect me!

Disconnect me
From this harmful dream
This world
Is not designed for me
I reject this reality
(Disconnect me
From this harmful dream)
I reject this reality
(This world
Is not designed for me)
I reject this reality

I'm rejecting everything

In this perfect life I live
Disconnect me
From this life I live
And I can't live without
Disconnect me
