

The Thrill

Digital Summer

Till the sun goes down, we keep it all inside.
If you dare to set us free, we will take you for a ride, where you never been before We'll leave you wanting more, so you better believe we'll bring you to your knees

Until the thrill is gone, just hold on tight, if this is wrong
i don't want to be right
Until the thrill is gone, we'll go all night, if this is wrong
I don't want to be right
(Just hold on) (Just hold on)

Never cared for consequences, we take no prisoners
Don't bother with regrets, we push forward till it hurts

We're lost and can't be found, no chains to hold us down
When fast isn't fast enough, you gotta learn to like it rough (it steals the breath from us) never giving up (it will be the death of us)

Until the thrill is gone, just hold on tight, if this wrong i d on't want to be right
Until the thrill is gone, we'll go all night, if this is wrong
i don't wanna be right
(just hold on) (Just hold on)

They been flowing through our veins, nothing compares Maybe we're insane but maybe we don't care

Until the morning sunrise, we'll push forward through the night
I can swear we won't surrender but I can't promise we'll surviv e

Until the morning sunrise, we'll push forward through the night
I swear we won't surrender but I can't promise we'll survive

Until the thrill is gone, just hold on tight, if this is wrong
i don't want to be right
Until the thrill is gone, we'll go all night, if this is wrong
I don't want to be right

Until the thrill is gone, could it be suicide
I can't promise we'll survive

(Just hold on) (Just Hold On)
