

Regular Movements

Dillon

Into the distance
In sequenced
Regular movements
I shift towards new thoughts

Moving forth
Heading north
Surpass barriers
Timed by each day's
Changing length

Regular movements
Towards new grounds
Trusting my instincts
Into the future

Uncommon landscapes
Ahead of us
Form routes for us to follow

Into the distance
In sequenced
Seasonal movements
I shift towards new thoughts

In a crowd
Heading south
Surpass barriers
Timed by each day's
Changing length

Uncommon landscapes
Far behind us
Form routes for us to follow
