

The Present

Dillon

To you I present
A fleeting moment
For us to share forever

This brutal approach
Awoke & exposed
A lost longing within me

You are a present

I get it
You are the present
I can now cherish

With me on defence
The present stays tense
As we care for each other

Our brutal approach
Awoke & exposed
Unspoken trust amongst us

We are the present

We get it
We are a present
We can now cherish
