

Tormentor of Christian Souls

Dimmu Borgir

I could drag you to my chambers and strip you naked in darkness I could pull your fingernails out one by one and rape you till you find no hope

I could rip your guts out and let you watch me sacrifice your unborn child I could leave you to starve and even bring you to total silence

For once!

For I find no pleasure in your physical pain
I want your Christian soul to crumble

When I have seen your church go up in flames and you are weeping I will laugh
When you mourn over loved ones
I will feel bliss when your mortal soul is in ruins

For once!

I will grin in the shadows for that gives me pleasure

Tormenting a Christian soul
