

Getting Ready for the Heartbreak

Dionne Warwick

Closed up all my windows, so no-one could see
Even told the mailman to pass by me
Cause my lover is coming today
And I know what he's gonna say
So I'm getting ready for the heartbreak
So I'm getting ready for the heartbreak

Last night he saw me walking, it was much too dark to see
The guy I was holding hands with meant nothing to me
But now my tears are falling like rain
And I'm starting to feel the pain
So I'm getting ready for the heartbreak
So I'm getting ready for the heartbreak

There's no use in carrying it on
Pretty soon our love will be gone
So I'm getting ready for the heartbreak
So I'm getting ready for the heartbreak
