

Odyssey Into The Vacuum

Diorama

integrated landslide
paler state of mind
exhausted by rebellion
that isn't one

a sculpture of a menace in company of fever
laugh about your prudence only if you can

and the panic is ready to attack

lock yourself in silence a noise of any colour comfortable cohesion
it's so much fun

harboured in the limelight ravaged by normality
the world is yours to shun quit thinking when you're young

my silent odyssey
into the vacuum
make me forget this world lead me to another one

my swaying odyssey
make me reflect this world throw me off I am almost there you never disappoint me conscientiously arranged the ways you paralyse me and you just begun

like sorrow with a compass dissolving into laughter a wreck of fond affection the error is creeping on

I got you
and I don't need anything else

I don't care
I am not responsible
I wasn't there
I was not responsible

let's stare each other down I bet I can stare you down force - counterforce

to create a universe
to escape a universe
