

Without A Kiss

Disbelief

the pain...

why have you left? why was it you? my life for yours!

I miss your glance, your smile, your scent, your hands, your eyes

without a kiss

why have you left? why was it you?

my life for yours - for you

so many ways, but only one is destined for me

without a kiss

try to realize it, try to realize the pain

without a kiss
