

She Knows What She Wants

Dizzee Rascal

She don't wanna play no games with me
Coz she knows what she wants

She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response

She knows what she wants
She dont want a nonce
Play her own way
She is not a ponce
Looking nonchalant
Looking confident I wanna be her confident
With a big badonk-a-donk
The ba-donkas looking tonk
I'll give her the wonky bony
But not before I take her to a boujee restautant
Yeah a boujee restautant
With the fancy condiments
And get her what she wants
Coz she knows what she wants
She wants a fansy fella with the manners and the charm
She wants a fansy fella in the new designer garms
She wants a fansy fella that'll be boppin arm-in-arm
Be her knight in shining armour and she'll never come to harm
He'll het a private jet and take her shopping in Milan
Or fly her to Dubai and have her staying at the palm
She wants a fansy fella who's a gentleman and calm but im not a fansy fella so I'll tell her waguan

She said she knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response

She knows where its at brought the t-shirt and the hat
She dont chat a lot of crap always snapping on the app
Got me shacking in the flat
She ain't lackin in the back
Keeps the kitty cat intact

Yeah the kitty cats a rap
I can rap about her baps or I can rap about the way she tries to hit me with the facts trying to hit me with the stacks
Trying to hit it then relax
Take a cheeky little nap
Im a cheeky chap but if if ever cheat I'll get a slap
She wants a fansy fella who is loyal and is true
Who takes her out for strolls and can forget about the crew
She wants a fansy fella that her parents can approve and can make a brave suggestion when she dont know what to do
She wants a fansy fella that'll treat her like a boo and not treat her like a bird coz shes had a cock-or-too
She wants a fansy fella that'll properly pursue but my name is dizzee rascal and im just passing through

(She said) she knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She knows what she wants
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
She dont beg no pardon and she dont beg no response
