

Too Late for Love

DJ Antoine

I shoulda paid attention to the signs
Guess it's true what they say, love is blind
It's time to take off the blindfold
'Cause I was there for you when you would call me
Gave my heart to you and you only
But you never, ever, never, ever treated me the same way, so

It's too late to bring back the flame when it dies
It's too late to undo the pain in my eyes
Too late for love, too late for love
It's too late for love
I said it's too late for trust when there's so many lies
It's too late for sorry, don't know how the drive's
Too late for love, too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love

Cry all you want, but you can't change my mind
I'm not gonna fall for it this time, I'll be alright on my own
'Cause I was there for you when you would call me
Gave my heart to you and you only
But you never, ever, never, ever treated me the same way, so

It's too late to bring back the flame when it dies
It's too late to undo the pain in my eyes
Too late for love, too late for love
It's too late for love
I said it's too late for trust when there's so many lies
It's too late for sorry, don't know how the drive's
Too late for love, too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love

It's too late, too late, too late for love
It's too late, too late, too late for love
It's too late, too late, too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late, too late, too late for love
It's too late, too late, too late for love
It's too late, too late, too late for love
It's too late for love

It's too late to bring back the flame when it dies
It's too late to undo the pain in my eyes
Too late for love, too late for love
It's too late for love
I said it's too late for trust when there's so many lies
It's too late for sorry, don't know how the drive's
Too late for love, too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love

It's too late for love
It's too late for love
It's too late for love
