

When The Rain Has Gone

DJ Antoine

Sitting here and waiting
And all I had was nothing Thought that we could make it through But all you say is "sorry"
And I don't look at money leaving is all you can do my love is all around me and nothing's gonna stop me
I know how to live my life
I'm ready for tomorrow to start again from zero
everything will be all right

When the rain has gone
I'll be over and over you and I'm still here

When the rain has gone
I'll be over and over you
and I'm still here

Everything will be all right

When the rain has gone
and I'm still here

When the rain has gone
