

In the Moment

DMA's

Are you fading
Is my side waiting?
For somethin' to shake it
But no one will take this

I'm in the moment
And I don't know what to say
Not a sound, is it yours now
Yeah you're in the moment
I need no one but mine
You without, this is yours now
Is this yours now?

All my friends lost
They tried to avoid love
A shy sky warning
It stops you, don't it?

I'm in the moment
And I don't know what to say
Not a sound, is it yours now
Yeah you're in the moment
I need no one but mine
You without, this is yours now

Are we going under
You're going over
Are we going under
You're going over
Are we going under
You're going over
Are we going under
Are we going over

I'm in the moment
And I don't know what to say
Not a sound, is it yours now
Yeah you're in the moment
I need no one but mine
You without, is it yours now
Is it yours now?
Is it yours now?
Is it yours now?
Is it yours now?
