Fear is only one thing I remember A lonesome lad, a heavy hearted guy I grabbed myself a pretty girl and took her home that night And it goes on

You'd be happy if we see December
Then I'll find another one of your kind
Grab yourself a pretty girl and take her home tonight
And it goes on

You'd be happy if we see December
Then you'll find another one of my kind
If you'd meet the river bed I know that I'd be sure
And it goes on

You crossed a line How original Who started the battle? Who's firing the guns?

And it goes on And it goes on And it goes on And it goes on
