

Absolution

Dogwood

Across the board, it seems I cannot comprehend
Why you would subjugate, then act like we are friends?
It makes no sense, slaves at best
Don't try to hide the fact that you are unaware of all our thoughts

I won't be scared that you won't let yourself be done
You are a servant to the chains which come undone
I won't be, liberty
Don't try to hide the fact that you are ignorant of your demise

Absolution
Absolution
Absolution

Free yourself from whatever it is that holds you back
We know the dreams you had to pinpoint your attack
But you will be, liberty
Don't let the fact that you've been weak before control you from inside
