The Mystery of the Mystery

Dolly Parton

There are so many things that I don't understand And I search my mind to try to find an answer But the more I search the less I seem to find out why Like where where the wind goes, how does life begin What happens when we die The mystery of the mystery must stay unknown Only God can know and man must not see Great minds have tried but they will not find The answer to the mystery of the mystery

Man will seek the mystic rails of the mystery But their silent halls reveal not a sound Many men will give their lives just to try to find The answer to a mystery in their mind

The mystery of the mystery must stay unknown Only God can know and man must not see Great minds have tried but they will not find The answer to the mystery of the mystery
