

Addicted to Black

Don McLean

Yeah, I'm addicted to black
Addicted to black
Addicted to wearing black on my back
It was good enough for Cisco
Good enough for Lash
Good enough for Hoppy
Good enough for Johnny Cash

Yeah, I'm addicted to black
Addicted to black
Addicted to wearing black on my back
You'll be as black as the bird
Where none is the word
It's easy to hide
With black as your guide

Black makes me look thin
It makes me look "in"
It makes me look down when I'm not (it's hot)
On the odd holiday
Well, I might try some gray
But I always come back
Cause I'm addicted to black

Yeah, I'm addicted to black
Addicted to black
Addicted to wearing black on my back
It was good enough for Cisco
Good enough for Lash
Good enough for Hoppy
Good enough for Johnny Cash
