

I'm So Gone

Donell Jones

It's a shame, you're playing games and controlling me
Don't know the difference between fiction and reality
I'm so gone, oh oh
It's a shame, you're playing games and controlling me
Don't know the difference between fiction and reality
I'm so gone, oh oh

Ayo ayo ayo ayo
My mind's got me twist it up
I can't get out my hand,
Ayo ayo ayo ayo
Like me in shot for the bullet close frames and left for dead
Ayo ayo ayo ayo
The mind got plenty wounds that go through and I've been through them
Ayo ayo ayo ayo
Ain't no sense of time, I'm living the lie, living the lie

It's a shame, you're playing games and controlling me
Don't know the difference between fiction and reality
I'm so gone, oh oh
It's a shame, you're playing games and controlling me
Don't know the difference between fiction and reality
I'm so gone, oh oh

Ayo ayo ayo ayo
I've been living in a fantasy world that my mind's got me all trapped in
Ayo ayo ayo ayo
It's like trying to swim out the ocean but I'm captured like a hostage
Ayo ayo ayo ayo
I'm ready for a brand new life so I draw the line
Ayo ayo ayo ayo
Ain't no sense of time, I'm living the lie, living the lie
I'm so gone

It's a shame, you're playing games and controlling me
Don't know the difference between fiction and reality
I'm so gone, oh oh
It's a shame, you're playing games and controlling me
Don't know the difference between fiction and reality
I'm so gone, oh oh

I'm so gone

It's a shame, you're playing games and controlling me
Don't know the difference between fiction and reality
I'm so gone, oh oh
It's a shame, you're playing games and controlling me
Don't know the difference between fiction and reality
I'm so gone, oh oh

I'm so gone
