Baby what you want, things ain't the same no more
I done closed the door cause I don't want you

Had your turn
Lesson learned
Left me hurt
Now it's your turn
You can burn

You can pack your stuff cause you know I caught you
But you won't leave with much I'm gonna keep what I bought you

Because you didn't know how to treat it right
Need a guy that I can trust
Keep it moving cause it's over
Said I'm giving up
Don't need a little boy need a man in my life
This is a new beginning but for you this is where it ends
