E F#
                B Asm
He's five foot two and he's six feet four
E F#
He fights with missiles and with spears
  E F# B
He's all of thirty-one and he's only seventeen
    C#m
He's been a soldier for a thousand years
E F# B Asm
He's a catholic, a hindu, an atheist, a jain,
                В
             F#
A buddhist and a baptist and a jew
And he knows he shouldn't kill
And he knows he always will
   C#m
Kill you for me, my friend and me for you
                 F#
And he's fighting for Canada, he's fighting for France
E F# B B7
He's fighting for the U.S.A.
                 F#
                               В
He's fighting for the Russians and he's fighting for Japan
    C#m
And he thinks we'll put an end to war this way
                  F#
                       В
And he's fighting for democracy, he's fighting for the reds
                F# B B7
He says it's for the peace of all E F# B
He's the one who must decide who's to live and who's to die
And he never sees the writing on the wall
     E F# B
But without him how would Hitler have condemned him at Dachau
 E F#
Without him Caesar would have stood alone
          F# B
He's the one who gives his body as a weapon of the war
And without him all this killing can't go on
 E F# B
He's the universal soldier and he really is to blame
               F#
His orders come from far away no more
     E
They come from here and there and you and me
And brothers can't you see
     C#m
This is not the way we put the end to war
