

Blaow!!

Dope D.O.D.

Bloaw! We are the inmates that spit hate! Blaow!!!! We are the wardens that warn em! Blaow!!! We are the shellshocked on cellb locks. The light fades slow, when ya hear the gate close

Stars aligning with the dark asylum, where laws of gravity, cause harsh confinement

Smog and sirens, hope ya got ya license, registration, Identification and occupation!

Cause we are wrong and righteous, we spawned a generation
This iz the celebration Illuminati likes us. Time to pay the piper, here's a demonstration. why we live by the unforgiving code of silence. We open fire, on those that attempt to break it, remember faces, in this biz you won't retire
Your a fly trapped in our worldwideweb with no choice but to worship the holy spiders...

Bloaw! We are the inmates that spit hate! Blaow!!!! We are the wardens that warn em! Blaow!!! We are the shellshocked on cellb locks. The light fades slow, when ya hear the gate close

Let me tell you why we dominate it's not to set the planet straight, we operate in ways Violate the democratic states

The candidates will pretend like they care about your problems, that's how we got my nigga in the oval office

See it's a tight circle! I'm bilderbergs worst dude, no clue of what we do but it does concern you

We the ones control the music business, we the ones who came up with that fishdick joke and niggas ripped it!

We the ones made you brainless and we the ones who made MTV famous, and still got you paying you dumb motherfuckers!

I'm sending all your kids to the east and you love it!

My system is perfect can nobody touch me, my tools of deception are the banks and the money

Remember it was us orchestrate that whole day with them 2 planes nobody was save the fuel flames popped their membranes like....

Isolated struggle, I'm so alone

Stuck inside a cell like a Y-chromosome! I'm trapped behind bars that I write on the wall

I never see a guard or hear life in the hall

They feed me lots of medication that is hard to ingest, every passing day, is another carve in the flesh

It's hard to express in any words what is wrong with me!!! a life sentence is the summary.....
