Wise man say only fools rush in. But I can't help falling in love with you.

Shall I stay?
Would it be a sin?
If I can't help
falling in love with you.

Like a river flows, surely to the sea; darling so it goes, some things are meant to be. Take my hand; take my whole life, too. For I can't help, falling in love with you. Like a river flows, surely to the sea; darling so it goes, some things are meant to be. Take my hand; take my whole life, too. For I can't help, falling in love with you.

Yes I can't help falling in love with you.
