

I Want You Back

Doro

I want you back again
Uh I want you back
I can't take it
That you're with someone else
Uh I want you here
I want you with me back again

Your very reason for leaving
Was that I let you go
But you know I regret it now
I wish I could make up for it
Somehow
'cause' we were meant for each other
So much love and pain we shared
I didn't mean to hurt you so bad

I want you back again
I want you back
I can't take it
When you're with someone else
I want you here
I want you with me back again

I never understood
That we' were meant to be
Until I saw you disappear
I came to realize
That you were the one for me
And that without you
I would rather die

The only reason I'm living
Is lust for loving you
I wish I could make it all come true
'cause' you are the only one for me
I don't have much hope
When I don't feel your love
You're all that I've got

I want you back again
I want you back
I'm jealous
When you're with someone else
I want you here
I want you with me
And no one else
And no one else
And no one else
