

Memory

Dot Hacker

Memories are all I feel like now
Some days are better than others
One by one they're fading now
One of us must leave the other alone

Season after season I'll be weathering
Until I come across you again

Do I know you?
Do I know you?
Do I know you?

Memories are all I'm left with now
Another way of saying alone

If I'd held on, they're escaping now
Throw 'em in the hold, they can't get away

Do I know you?
Do I know you?
Oh, now?
Then no, I don't?
Do I know you?

I hope I learned from you
Try to learn from you
Throw my arms around you
In the hopes I drown in you

With holding onto some
Maybe holding onto some
With holding onto some

Maybe one day in the middle of who knows where
It'll all come flooding back

Do I know you?
Do I know you?
Oh, now?
Then no, I don't?
Then no, I don't?

Do I know you?
Oh, now?
Then no, I don't?
Do I know you?
Do I know you?
Do I know you?

Memories are all I feel like now
Memories are all I feel like now
Memories are all I feel...
