

Hey, Mr. Dream Maker

Dottie West

I've cried some since he went away Oh, I miss him, I wanna kiss him, ain't it just the way, babe
But it's no way at all, 'cause if you knew what I'm going through You'd know there's one thing wrong with the way I'm living Ain't got my baby no more

R:

Hey, Mr. Dream Maker, send me a dream
This one is over, at least, that's what it seems
And so tonight when I turn out the light Send me a new dream tonight

He didn't say much, just a little touch, and he was on his way
He couldn't hold me, when he told me, he'd just faded away
But it's no use crying 'cause what everybody tells me, and they all seem to know
There's one thing wrong with the way I'm living Ain't got my baby no more

Hey, so tonight when I turn out the light Send me a new dream tonight, (Mr. Dream Maker, send me a new dream tonight)
Send me a new dream tonight, send me a new dream tonight (Mr. Dream Maker)

Send a dream, send me a dream
Send a dream, send me a dream
