

Angela's Eyes

Dr. Hook

Once on a midsummer's night
I gazed on a beautiful sight
And without a word all was said
When my eyes and Angela's met

And I found myself in Angela's arms
And Angela's arms felt so right
I fell in love with an angel that night
When I looked in Angela's eyes

Ridin' life's wild carousel
Can be either heaven or hell
Depending on who shares the ride
With Angela I'm satisfied

And I found myself in Angela's arms
And Angela's arms felt so right
I fell in love with an angel that night
And I'm lost in Angela's eyes

I'm making love to an angel tonight
And I'm lost in Angela's eyes
