

Elysian Night

Draconian

I am so far away...
You see, I'm nothing without thee
I fall down, down to the ground, and all alone, I wish that I could go

Drown here with me,
hold me, save me

Are you there, beloved one?
I clench our whisper to the fading Playing out this frozen dream to watch me bleed in the sunrise watch me bleed in the sunrise

Break, can you see how I break, and still, my world remains the same Don't die, please stay for a while This night we'll learn how to fly

Snow is falling from ebon skies and I see some peace in your eyes Playing out this frozen dream to watch us bleed in the sunrise watch us bleed in the sunrise

I can't go on with the quiet,
to wait until we wake up,
to be gone with the fire
I must go now

Are you there, beloved one?
Will you help me carry on,
and lead me through the sunrise?
Lead me through the sunrise

I can't go on with the quiet,
to wait until we wake up,
to be gone with the fire
I must go now
