

Smoke

Dragon

If you can't hear me
No, my heart's on fire
If you can't hear me
I hope you'll let it burn
I'm waiting here
Holding on for hours
If you don't know by now
You'll never ever learn

There's no smoke
Smoke without a fire
There's no hope
Hope without desire

Can you hear me now
All you friends and strangers
If I show you my heart
You'll promise not to tell
I'm giving you my heart for your loving
But is talking in my sleep losing you as well?

There's no smoke
Smoke without a fire
There's no hope
Hope without desire

Am I talking in my sleep?
Am I falling in too deep?

If you can't hear me
No, my heart's on fire
If you can't hear me
I hope you'll let it burn

There's no smoke
Smoke without a fire
There's no hope
No hope without desire

Am I talking in my sleep?
Am I falling in too deep?
Am I talking in my sleep?
Am I falling in too deep?
Am I talking in my sleep?
Smoke without a fire
Am I falling in too deep?
Hope without desire
Am I talking in my sleep?
