

Tell Me Why

Dream On, Dreamer

As the sky breaks in I'm holding
Onto something broken
I know we can all just end
But here I am on my knees again
I thought that this was golden
I thought you'd be the one
To show me how to walk again
Now I'm on my knees again

And oh I'm falling apart

Tell me why you broke our love
Tell me why you fucked our trust
Show me why it's not enough
Show me why I'm still here
Crying at a broken cross before you run run
Tell me why you broke our love
Tell me why you lost your trust
Show me where it got too rough
Show me why I'm still here
Crying at a broken cross before you run run
Tell me why you broke our love

Totaled, you were moving on me
Waking up tired when I'm trying to forget it
Pushing every day, don't push it away
We're talking so I might as well stay
Come count all my problems I won't be back
Come see me as a child beating blue and black
I'll tell you the truth how much it hurt
I told her the drop was a million miles

Say it just this once

Tell me why you broke our love
Tell me why you fucked our trust
Show me why it's not enough
Show me why I'm still here crying at a broken cross before you run run
Tell me why you broke our love
Tell me why you lost your trust
Show me where it got too rough
Show me why I'm still here crying at a broken cross before you run run
Tell me why you broke our love

(Tell me why you broke our love)
(Tell me why you broke our love)
(Tell me why you broke our love)
(Tell me why you broke our love)

As the sky is falling you feel brand-new
I see the gun you're holding but please don't shoot
You know that you're all that I've got

So tell me why you broke our love
Tell me why you fucked our trust
Show me why it's not enough
Show me why I'm still here crying at a broken cross before you run run

Tell me why you broke our love
Tell me why you lost your trust
Show me where it got too rough
Show me why I'm still here crying at a broken cross before you run run
Tell me why you broke our love

(So tell me why you broke our love)
(Tell me why you broke our love)
(So tell me why you broke our love)
(Tell me why you broke our love)
