

Lucky Charlie

Dropkick Murphys

Hey lucky Charlie, why do you get the breaks?
All the women love you and you never make mistakes.
Hey lucky bastard tell us you you do it
We all wish we were you, but aint got what it takes.

You never go hungry
You seem to eat your luck
You never want to drink (?)
So I always let you up heavy is the head that has to wear the crown.
To you ever get tired of your world renown.

Hey lucky Charlie, why do you get the breaks?
All the women love you and you never make mistakes.
Hey lucky bastard tell us you you do it
We all wish we were you, but aint got what it takes.

Hey lucky Charlie.
Hey lucky Charlie.

When you were a kid
You played in trafic every day
Now you cross the street
And you never look each way
When you're in a tussle
You never get a scratch
What's gonna happen
When you meat your match.

Hey lucky Charlie, why do you get the breaks?
All the women love you and you never make mistakes.
Hey lucky bastard tell us you you do it
We all wish we were you, but aint got what it takes.

He tried to rob a bank
They gave him all the dough
He ran into the cops
Had a couple and a smoke
He's got a horseshoe up his ass
and silver in his mouth
what's he gonna do
when his luck runs out

Hey lucky Charlie, why do you get the breaks?
All the women love you and you never make mistakes.
Hey lucky bastard tell us you you do it
We all wish we were you, but aint got what it takes.

Hey lucky Charlie, why do you get the breaks?
All the women love you and you never make mistakes.
Hey lucky bastard tell us you you do it
We all wish we were you, but aint got what it takes.

Hey lucky Charlie
Hey lucky Charlie
