

King Zero

Drowning Pool

Pocket full of dreams and a head full of nightmares
No man is gonna kick me off my high chair
No heroin or, or cocaine
Just need a spark to keep this level headed trip clean
I got everything I need
A triple dose of what your god bleeds
I'm not breaking, Your worlds just shaking
How does it feel down on your knees

I am who I am
I'm King Zero I'm King Zero
I am who I am
King Zero in this land of nothing

So much suffering
In my land of nothing

Eyes of glass and a hand full of my cares
Make the rules change 'em up as I dare
No second chance or a second glance
Cross me feel the fist behind my rule
Shootin' stars sippin' kerosene
With every shot I see everything I need
If I can dream it, then I can be it
I am baby all I need

I'll roll you over, Just as fast as I can
I'll roll you over, Like the Son of Sam
I'll roll you over, Baby here I am
I'll roll you over...

In the end there's nothing!
