Drowning Pool

Pity

My life served on a plate For all of you to eat Take my love and hate But what is this inside of me Pity me pity me don't you pity me Under everything something that you can't see I can't even believe something is wrong with me You swear that all of this is real But sometimes I can't seem to feel Nothing ever satisfies One day I will realize Am I really scared of something that I don't know Do you even care What is really wrong
