Last night we had an argument Afterwards, I'm feelin' pretty bent Then I took a drink and I didn't think What was in store for me So I wrote a letter Dropped it on the bedroom floor I never felt this way before, no I grabbed my coat and closed the door baby, I'm sorry

Baby I'm sorry (Oh yeah) Sorry for what I've done (Will you forgive me) Will you forgive me and let me be your only one Cuz you are

- You are everything And I would give you anything Sorry for what I've done I wanna be your only one

Girl I apologize for all your tears When you cried, sorry for what I've done I wanna be your only one

Girl I apologize for all the tears And all the lies And if by chance just one more chance I swear I'll be the epitome of a good man

Baby I'm sorry (I'm sorry) Sorry for what I've done (Baby) Will you forgive me (Hey, yeah) And let me be your only one Cuz yo are oh, oh, oh, come on You are everything And everything is you You are everything Yo yo everything I do

You are everything And everything is you You are everything Girl, you're everything I do

You are everything And everything is you You are everything Girl, you're everything I do Everything I do

You are everything And everything is you You are everything And everything is you
