

Back to Daylight

Dub Pistols

Well they say you're having an affair you're living it up, think you're a player and I know there's something in the air are you giving it up? Do you like to share?
It's the same dirty game burning like a flame it's gonna failure but you wouldn't be mine, no down on your sleep, living like a liar laughing at your sleep you don't know your name

Long time, it's the same vibe it's a long climb back to daylight high crime, it's not my time I don't know why you can't see it

Well you're living life without a care are you living enough? Or are you scared?
It seems to me you're unaware maybe living too much playing solitaire It's the same dirty groove wouldn't you like to move?
It's gonna failure
you can never be wise you're down on your game just the same old same feel the pointed fingers, they're for you

Long time, it's the same vibe
high crime, it's not my time I don't know why you can't see it (x2)

Well I ain't defending my decision you call me a liar, well you're ought to know ain't it a most (??) isn't my trial now I got to go oh yeah

Long time, it's the same vibe
it's a long climb back to daylight
high crime, it's not my time
I don't know why you can't see it

Long time, it's the same vibe
high crime, it's not my time
I don't know why you can't see it
