

Obey

Dwele

First let me say I'm sorry
In case, I go too far
But I don't foresee a problem
For the fact that here you are
And here I am, here's my disclaimer.
If you decide to stay, I swear you won't regret this moment
But first I need you to...

Obey

Embrace screams, lay it down, loose those jeans.
Show me how your pussy works, yeah.
I can be your B. McKnight, take all day.
But first Obey.

If only for one moment, accept me as your king.
In return, I turn to love you. My hand, your neck, no screams.
Tap me once if it's too much pressure.
Tap twice if you need to breathe.
Don't play tough if you're not ready.
Before you faint on me.

Obey, stay in place.
Oh as I grab your waist.
Don't get mad if I bury your face.
I might snatch your hair if it's real.
Ride the wave, take all day
But first Obey.
Embrace screams, lay it down, loose those jeans.
Show me how your pussy works, yeah.
I can be your B. McKnight, take all day.
But first Obey.

Slow it down, you're cumming all over me now.
I ain't tripping it'll all wash off with a towel.
Take your time, the sun don't come out for a while
Meanwhile, I'm a make sure to make you smile
Grind slow, no premature popping the gun.
I'm tryna work the middle down til it's all done,
Til its all done, til its all...

Oh, oh, oh
