At first my capital was disintegrating but now it's escalating
In my neck of the woods on my side of the earth we out here cheddar chasing
Hustling and rushing and racing, bay niggas ain't got no patience
Fresh out of jail, he right back in and serving yell to patrons
I could pull a botch if my breath stank
In a beat up dented bucket on an empty tank
Out here we nervous and smirking and give you the service
Out here it's hustle and murders be careful if you a tourist
Hyperspace and sedated love to get wasted and faded
Levitated, elated, delated eyes dilated
Loaded like a Mossberg jar full of herb
If you want beef then I'll bring a herd
You can't spell West without the E (Who you put that on?)
I put that on me
I'm crispy like Panko, monitor on my ankle
Real nigga like Django, I put my foot in yo anal
