

The Itch

Eagle Eye Cherry

So you've cleaned your act up, that's not what your sister's saying
You talking trash non-stop with me, no, you lying
About your fake good day then your trip up the state
You've been to rehab, princess, and daddy's paying

You've got the itch, girl
Baby can kick it
Your daddy's rich
Girl, getting it all
You're just a trust fund tramp, you don't give a damn
You've got the itch, girl
Baby can kick it

You look like trash and it's not from the lack of trying
You've got cash but it seems all the crap you buying
You make your skin look fake and the shit you take It makes you laugh die twitching, no use denying

You've got the itch, girl
Baby can kick it
Your daddy's rich
Girl, getting it all
You're just a trust fund tramp, you don't give a damn
You've got the itch, girl
Baby can kick it

You've got more than you ask for
Baby can kick it
More than you ask for
Baby can kick it
More than you ask for
Baby can kick it
You've got all that you ask for and even more

Now it's the same lame trick that you're always playing
No matter how big the stash has been satisfying
It's what you say you hate but you just can't wait
Until you stop to believe all the shit they're saying

You've got the itch, girl
Baby can kick it
Your daddy's rich
Girl, getting it all
You're just a trust fund tramp, you don't give a damn
You've got the itch, girl
Baby can kick it

You've got more than you ask for
Baby can kick it
More than you ask for
Baby can kick it
More than you ask for
Baby can kick it
All that you ask for and more

You've got more than you ask for
Baby can kick it
More than you ask for
Baby can kick it
More than you ask for
Baby can kick it

You've got more than you ask for
Baby can kick it
More than you ask for
Baby can kick it
