

Skin-Tight Boogie

Eagles of Death Metal

Arms legs toes and feet
Lipstick and eyes sneaky peeks
Split tail buttons and bows
Pink butterflies on painted toes

I'm a skin tight boogie baby
Right on top of the world
You're a skin tight boogie baby
Don't you stop baby girl

Yeah everybody wanna hold my hand
Gonna drag me off to a promised land
(you wanna go?) baby, oh no
(you wanna go?) I don't think so
You're just a dumb-dumb toad
Who's done run out of road
So you ain't going nowhere with me beat it

Rules are bending still pretending
Mind expanding never ending
Rules are bending still pretending
Mind expanding never ending

Come close closer still
Some boys won't but you know I will
Can I walk you home
Carry your books so you're not alone

I'm a skin tight boogie baby
Right on top of the world
You're a skin tight boogie baby
Don't you stop baby girl
