EARTHGANG

Down town Atlanta, downtown Atlanta
Underground sandwich
Aye bay what's Hannin
I might buy time, this shit by hand
Quick pick or classic, Rolls Royce or Camry
Dig in your pussy and fill up your soul
Blood sweat and tears, coughed up the toll
Back when 400 was just a state road
Only for the rich ones, only want the poor ones inside of their house when t hey cleaning the kitchens or they baby sitting SAAAAAAY

I been living this way since my Ma lost her daddy
Before Hartsfield was Jackson
'Fore 3 Stacks had the accent
I ain't digging or dissing
Just cementing the facts
Before bridges were burned
And traffic was backed up and booties were buckling
I been had the access

I'm still finding away
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread my wings
I'm still grinding today
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread my wings
I still fly in the rain
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread wings
I'm still grinding today
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread my wings

Goin up for the citaaaaay
Goin up for the town
Only Day one niggas with maaaaay
Can't keep no one else around

Goin up for the citaaaaay
Goin up for the town
Only Day one niggas with maaaaay
Can't keep no one else around

I been living this way
Since before all the buzz
And the snow in the bluff
Wasn't all on your face
Bumping Yola da Great
This is my Zone (4) this is my Zen
Before the dome took the roof off the Benz
This is what happens when you know your worth
And you certain you always deserve what you get
RIP Grip
He told me early they can't tell me shit
Never been the same ever since
Made a name in the city
Blocking lame energy
Cause that pain make you sick

I'm still finding away
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread my wings

I'm still grinding today
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread my wings
I still fly in the rain
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread wings
I'm still grinding today
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread my wings

I'm still finding away
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread my wings
I'm still grinding today
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread my wings
I still fly in the rain
Spread my wings, Spread my wings, Spread wings
