

Here's to the Next One

Easton Corbin

Well I drank too much
Stayed out too late
Yea I think I had a shot
Of just about everything they got
And now here I am
Sayin never again
But to tell the neon truth
Friday can't come too soon

So here's to the next one
And all the ones after that
Here's to the lessons I ain't learned
Cause I ain't took my last wrong turn
Here's to the one more one more time
The keep on goin til you get it right
The wait and see it just might be the best one
Here's to the next one

When she said goodbye
She broke my heart
I know she's out there wild and free
But I can't let it get the best of me
Ain't hangin round
Here no more
Time to get these boots
Up off the porch
I might of missed out on miss right
But I might be buyin her a drink tonight

So here's to the next one
And all the ones after that
Here's to the lessons I ain't learned
Cause I ain't took my last wrong turn
Here's to the one more one more time
The keep on goin til you get it right
The wait and see it just might be the best one
Here's to the next one

Another beer
Another Friday night
Another girl
Another neon light
Come on raise your glass up to the last one

So here's to the next one
Here's to the lessons I ain't learned
Here's to the next one
Cause I ain't took my last wrong turn
Here's to the one more one more time
The keep on goin til you get it right
Here's to the next one
Here's to the next one
