

Ode To You

Edgewater

Drenched in sweat from the touch of you
Quivering, what to do?
'Cause you will lead the way
And you will make me sway into you

'Cause I will wait for a chance with you
To lose everything I'm used to
And I catch myself confused

Take a chance, what you got to lose?
Imagining, what I could do
'Cause you will lead the way
And you will make me sway into you

'Cause I will wait for a chance with you
To lose everything I'm used to
And I catch myself induced chasing after you

Lay me down
Don't let go, don't let me drown
I want you to know
I won't give up for anything

Taking me to the breaking point
And you're tired of talk and walk from me
Take a chance and let me breathe
And I'll find a way that you can see

'Cause I will wait for a chance with you
To lose everything I'm used to
And I catch myself confused

'Cause I will wait for a chance with you
To lose everything I'm used to
And I catch myself induced chasing after you
