Edguy

Cast off! Raise the flag! Into the vastness of the sea!
Chasing the skyline
We set out at the dawn of eternity

Wakeful nights, reckless hasting
Carved a rut into the waves
Brought the light to the wastelands
No time to turn around

Time flies on as the folds write on your face
About the memories you make, coining landmarks
Time flies on and the scars land on a face
Growing on, making space for coining landmarks

Into the waves
Into the waves

Ain't it strange how while you're in this
You don't feel confines
You face and brave your Nemesis: the ravages of time

You defy! Reckless hasting
Scarred for life and you don't have enough
Cloak and sword
Delusions of grandeur
Still we're on our way

Time flies on as the folds write on your face
About the memories you've made, coining landmarks
Time flies on, leaving scars that make you whole
On your heart, on your soul, coining landmarks...

Time flies on as the folds write on your face
All the memories you've made, coining landmarks
Time flies on, leaving scars that make you whole
On your voice, in your knees, cherished landmarks...
