

My Judas

Edwin McCain

The way that we walked side by side
Made breathing easy
With you I had nothing to hide
I was yours completely

The way that you held me in your arms
Made give up my secrets
The stories behind the little scars
Places where I was weakest

Then you took me down
I guess I was the only believer in our sacred ground
Damn baby, you were the last one
I thought would ever do this, you're my Judas

I let you see who I am
And all of my imperfections
They turned into stones in your hands
Yeah, you fashioned my faith
And my trust into a weapon

Then you took me down
I guess I was the only believer in our sacred ground
Damn baby, you were the last one
I thought would ever do this, you're my Judas

I know in every life there's pain to bare
I never thought you'd be the one to put in there

Then you took me down
I guess I was the only believer in our sacred ground
Damn baby, you were the last one
With the inside job, the most ruthless
I never thought you'd do this, you're my Judas

I let you see who I am
