

You Are Mine

Eisley

Baby
Let's not argue
While the moon is out
We should just hold each other
Let it go

Baby you're so logical
I can't understand how you still love me
But I'm finding out

You're my everything
My sun and moon
You make me swoon
Wake me up, talk too much, piss me off
But you are mine

Yeah yeah baby
Would you say something to bait me
It's so hard to admit I'm crazy
Letting it go
I'm letting it go
So let me in
Letting it go
I'm letting it go
So let me in
Yeah yeah baby
I'll admit I'm crazy

Baby let's not argue, God just bomb and burn the menagerie
Full of demons deep inside of me

'Cause you're my everything
My sun and moon
You make me swoon
Wake me up, you talk too much, piss me off
But you are mine

Now that we've grown you, you've shown me
The best damn parts of myself
And I, I've taught you, to only use lavender
When I'm here, and you're with me
We can't undo the grip on our hearts
