Basic

Electric Guest

It's only a reminder
It's something that I'll put behind me
I thought you were the highest
But now that the room's gone silent, I
I see the way you're walkin'
'Cause everyday I sit back watchin'
You've got a lot of hype but you remain the same

Basic
On some basic shit, didn't know what I was dealing with
Basic
Burning every bridge, now that you're alone you wanna switch
Basic
Till the day you quit
No more second chance from me, because
You're too basic, you're too basic

Ooh no, you aren't the one that I thought you were
Ooh no, you aren't the one that I thought you were
Ooh no, you aren't the one that I thought you were
Ooh no, you aren't the one that I thought you were

It's only a reminder
You left another mess behind you
You wanna be the power
You love when the crowd gets louder
I, I know that you believe it
Until the day that they up and leave
You've got a lot of hype but you remain the same

Basic
On some basic shit, didn't know what I was dealing with
Basic
Burning every bridge, now that you're alone you wanna switch
Basic
Till the day you quit
No more second chance from me, because
You're too basic, you're too basic

Ooh no, you aren't the one that I thought you were
Ooh no, you aren't the one that I thought you were
Ooh no, you aren't the one that I thought you were
Ooh no, you aren't the one that I thought you were

Basic
On some basic shit, didn't know what I was dealing with
Basic
Burning every bridge, now that you're alone you wanna switch
