Electric Guest

Ooh, I'm dead
Walking round but there's nothing in my head
Thought I was highest shelf
Guess I'm something else
I can see now I was misled
Ooh, it's gone
Took a while to realize it was wrong
Barely can find my way
In this awful age
Guess there's not much to depend on

I'm just waiting on you
Waiting on me
Waiting on something to come my way
Sometimes it's hard to know
What I'm living for
But I come back again each day

'Cause I want more, more, more
And I'm almost gone
But still keep holding on
'Cause I want more, more, more
Never know if this will be the end
But all I, know is that I would do it again

Ooh, too bad
Thinking 'bout myself is making me sad
I barely feel the day
Still I'm here awake
In the off chance it might come back

I'm just waiting on you
Waiting on me
Waiting on something to come my way
These days it's hard to know
What we're living for
But I come back again each day

'Cause I want more, more, more
And I'm almost gone
But still keep holding on
'Cause I want more, more, more
Never know if this will be the end
But all I, know is that I would do it again

So many days
I feel like I'm drowning
Looking for help
But I still haven't found it
But I still wake up
For the hope of what's in store

'Cause I want more, more, more
And even though I'm gone
I still keep holding on

'Cause I want more (I may be scared but I've been living it)

More (Can you see the way that I'm giving you more)
More (Even though I'm probably going back to the way it always ends)
[?] (I may be scared but I've been living it)
Which way it blow (Can you see the way that I'm giving you more)
Been so lost for so long (Even though I'm probably going back)
I don't know (To the way it always ends)
I don't know anymore (I may be scared but I've been living it)
I don't know anymore (Can you see the way that I'm giving you more)
Trying to find my way (Even though I'm probably going back to the way it always ends)

'Cause I want more
