

Revelations

Eli Young Band

Judgement day is finally here
Time to testify, my dear
Cheating ain't your only crime
You killed love, stole my time

Thank God I learned what you are
Before we went too far

Hallelujah and amen
For the lies I caught you in
Funny how your sin led to my salvation
We were this close to our due
Almost sold my soul to you
Praise the Lord for guilty hands and revelations

I might not have caught on to you
But you left a trail of clues
Working late, hung up calls
Hotel keys and paper-thin walls

And there's no good reason why
You've got no alibi

Hallelujah and amen
For the lies I caught you in
Funny how your sin led to my salvation
We were this close to our due
Almost sold my soul to you
Praise the Lord for guilty hands and revelations
For revelations

I wanna shout and clap my hands
Cause you make me one happy man

Hallelujah and amen
For the lies I caught you in
Funny how your sin led to my salvation
We were this close to our due
Almost sold my soul to you
Praise the Lord for guilty hands and revelations

I was blind but now I see
Everything you've done to me
Praise the Lord for guilty hands and revelations
For revelations
