

One Step Away (Eppure Sentire)

Elisa

One step away
from all I want
and I know it's all here

afraid to move
afraid to choose
afraid of my own fear of times when I may not be strong places were I may not belong but I hold on to this feeling that stands above all feelings tellin' me not to let go and I live on

this feeling
the greatest of all feelings tellin' me not to grow cold please help me get through and let me in you
