

Loving U Blind

Elle Varner

Are you crazy, are you kind?
Are you mean and pretending you're nice?
Were you born with wandering eyes or
Can you love only one at a time?

Are you lazy, do you snore?
Do you leave all your clothes on the floor?
Say you never anymore
Well there's only one way to be sure

I'm takin' my time
Drivin' slow and I hope you don't mind
Instead of rushin' and lovin' you blind
I'm takin' my time

Hope you're funny, hope you're strong
Hope you and all my friends get along
When a scary movie's on,
Can I cling for dear life to your arm?

'Cause I'm scared of the dark
And I'm scared of you breakin' my heart

Though there ain't much left to break
I don't know how much more I can take

So I'm takin' my time
Drivin' slow and I hope you don't mind
Instead of rushin' and lovin' you blind
I'm takin' my time
Takin' my time
Time
Time

Are you patient as a storm
Are you prone towards bein' alone
Would you still wanna see me
On sweet sunny mornin's
And sing all the words to this song

I'm takin' my time
Drivin' slow and I hope you don't mind
Instead of rushin' and lovin' you blind
I'm takin' my, takin' my
Instead of rushin' and lovin' you blind
I'm takin' my time
